No. 16/Home/2009

Dated: 16.03.2009

NOTIFICATION

Whereas, second Administrative Reforms Commission set up by the Government of India in its seventh report on Capacity Building for conflict resolution has recommended constitution of State Integration Council and District Level Integration Councils (District Peace Committees) to take stock of state level conflict situation having suitable linkages with the National Integration Council.

And whereas, the State Government vide notification no. 79/Home/2005 dated 22.12.2005 has already constituted State Level and District Level National Integration Committees to function as peace committees so as to preserve the communal harmony and for promotion of National Integration.

Now therefore, in view of peaceful scenario existing in the state and no reports of communal violence, the State Government is hereby pleased to notify that the State and District Level National Integration Committees already constituted by the State Government vide Notification No. 79/Home/2005 dated 22.12.2005 shall also function as the State and District Integration Councils respectively for the State of Sikkim.

BY ORDER.
